PRESS RELEASE

(Boston, MA) Tuesday, September 8, 2010 – The employees of Prince Lobel Glovsky & Tye recently visited Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mission Grammar School in Roxbury as part of the Inner-City Scholarship Fund (ICSF) Day to Make A Difference Program. The volunteers spent the day helping the students and teachers at Mission Grammar prepare for the start of the school year by painting, assembling furniture and doing classroom cleanup.

Prince Lobel will also be the presenting sponsor at the upcoming ICSF Back to School Cup at Wollaston Golf Club in Milton on October 4th. “Prince Lobel’s generosity both in their volunteer efforts as well as their sponsorship of the Back to School Cup has without a doubt directly impacted the lives of so many of our students” said Mike Reardon, Executive Director of the Catholic Schools Foundation “We are grateful for their commitment to our signature program, the Inner-City Scholarship Fund”.

The Inner-City Scholarship Fund provides tuition support for students attending Catholic School in the Archdiocese of Boston. ICSF also works with organizations such as Prince Lobel to build awareness regarding the need in these schools.
